

South Eastern Health and Social Care Trust

345,000
people served

12,000
staff employed

£600m
annual budget

The South Eastern HSC Trust provides acute hospital services and a number of community and health services, the population served is extremely diverse with areas of prosperity and deprivation covered by the following hospitals:

Ulster Hospital - the major acute hospital for the Trust delivering a full range of outpatient and inpatient services including a type 1 Emergency Department open 24/7. Ulster Hospital has undergone extensive redevelopment creating a new and modern Inpatient Ward Block and Acute Ward Block.

Downe Hospital - offering a wide range of services including a type 2 Emergency department, a Minor Injuries Unit and providing the Trustwide Bowel Screening Service

Lagan Valley Hospital - a local hospital offering inpatient medical services as well as diagnostic, daycare and maternity services. It also has a Type 2 Emergency Department which is closed at weekends

Ards Community Hospital - health, primary care and social services are offered here with a Minor Injuries Unit, an X ray department and an out of hours GP on site

Bangor Community Hospital - offering a comprehensive range of health, social and primary care services to the population with an Outpatients Department, an X Ray Department and a Minor Injuries Unit

The newly renovated and modern Ulster Hospital

Continuous development and improvement at the Trust:

The Trust has a number of core values; collaboration, compassion, openness and honesty and the final being excellence. This strive for excellence when delivering patient care is reflected in the continuous improvement and development of the Trust. This is reflected in the extensive renovation the Ulster Hospital has become a state of the art facility fit for the 21st century. The highly modern Inpatient Ward Block has 288 en-suite bedrooms, four state-of-the-art Operating Theatres and an Endoscopy suite.

Living in the area:

With a broad geographical spread, the Trust area offers all types of living. Living in this area gives you access to beautiful scenery to explore including Strangford Lough and the opportunity to learn and play on some incredible golf courses. For the family you can bike ride through the towns and villages or visit Exploris aquarium. Alternatively you can enjoy the sporting facilities and tradition of Lisburn. The area also benefits from having Belfast on it's doorstep, offering easy access to the capitals many amenities.